Introduction

Charles Percival Hart started our business in 1937, dedicated to providing the trade with better products, service and design expertise. Over 80 years later C.P. Hart still espouses those first principles. The heart of the business remains our dedication to trade professionals, serving residential, hospitality and institutional clients - nationwide.

C.P. Hart is the largest supplier of premium bathrooms in the UK. We have longstanding relationships with the world's leading bathroom designers and lead the UK market in terms of design and technological innovation. Our buying power enables us to secure exclusive products for the UK market and favourable buying terms for our clients.

Our Brassware Collections brochure presents just a small selection of our portfolio, intended as a guide to styles and new design. Start here, then use our showrooms and website to complete the journey to your own perfect bathroom.

Waterloo

Our Waterloo range is a corner stone of our heritage, encompassing our values of ground breaking design, quality and innovation. The original Waterloo shower valve was designed by John Hart and today the range includes all the exposed and concealed shower elements you could need. Its versatile styling allows you to emphasise either its traditional or modern features.
